FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs)

AT SOURCE QUESTIONS

What information does the beneficiary need to disclose in order to receive favorable tax treatment?	Name, address, country of residence, and share position. A tax ID number is only required for U.S. residents.
Do shareholders requesting 15.315% withholding need to disclose information?	No, disclosure does not apply. Please refer to relief at-source eligibility matrix for documentation requirements.
Will holders wishing to benefit from favorable tax treatment need to furnish supporting documentation up front?	No, brokers must store W-9 and W-8BEN on file in case of an audit.
Does the Japanese law require a certification of residence (Form 6166) to participate in the reclaim process?	No. The law governing the processing of DRS does not require the presence or collection of a certification of residency (Form 6166) though participants may be required to prove the eligibility of the underlying investors. Upon review of the W-9 and W-8BEN forms the Japanese tax office agreed to accept these as proof of eligibility.
Will a certificate of residence (Form 6166) be requested during an audit?	The Japanese ministry of finance reserves the right to request any other documentation it may need to determine the eligibility of the investor. We have been advised that the Japanese tax office may request a certificate of residency in rare circumstances where the information provided is inconsistent and cannot be confirmed through the provision of other documents or explanations.
Who is considered a “large shareholder”?	Individual (non-corporate) investors who hold 3% or more of the number of outstanding shares for dividend income from listed shares, now fall under the "large shareholder" category. These "large shareholders" will no longer be eligible for the preferential tax rates and thus be applied the 20.42% tax rate for dividends paid after September 30, 2011. Participants are required to disclose the name and address of these "large shareholders" to the depositary by the deadline stated within this notice. Corporate entities (both Japanese and non-Japanese) who hold 3% or more of the number of outstanding shares for dividend income from listed shares are still entitled to the preferential withholding rates and are eligible to receive the income with a 15.315% withholding rate applied or more if eligible based on the treaty between the investors country of residence and Japan. Dividend income for unlisted shares will continue to be withheld at the 20.42% Japanese national tax rate.
