

Quality and Process Excellence Awards

Balanced Scorecard Hall of Fame

Admits prestigious corporations who demonstrate proactive alignment between their strategy execution and enterprise balanced scorecard. The judges are Drs. Kaplan and Norton, creators of the balanced scorecard. Inductee names are publicized in the Harvard Business Review.

WCBF Global Awards

Recognize companies who reach world class status in various categories of Six Sigma and business process improvement initiatives. They are awarded following a review by a global peer group of industry experts in Six Sigma.

IQPC Awards

Distinguish corporations who achieve best-in-class levels in Process Excellence program deployment. A global panel of independent judges from leading companies in Lean Six Sigma selects the winners.