Subject: MarkitSERV Documentation and Download Portal

On Saturday, March 16th, 2013, the MarkitSERV Documentation and Download Portal was launched during which DSMatch and Novation Consent documentation and download content was migrated to a new website.

The objective of this launch is to deliver an integrated portal for all our clients through a single log on point for documentation access. The new portal is available at www.markitserv.com/information.

Further information regarding registration and access will be provided in a separate email.

Any questions or comments regarding this change should be directed to MarkitSERV Client Services at support@markitserv.com.
