REPSOL S.A. has announced an optional dividend and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas acts as Depository for the Depository Receipt (“ADR”) program.

On ADR Pay Date Participants who elect Traditional Cash for the optional election through CA Web will receive this dividend net of the full Spanish statutory withholding tax rate of 19% and may follow the withholding tax reclaim procedures outlined below to obtain treaty benefits. All DR holders electing for Stock will not be subject to Spanish dividend withholding tax and therefore no additional entitlement is possible. All DR holders electing Proceeds from the Sale of Rights who are properly disclosed, with the exception of Spanish resident individuals, will not be subject to Spanish dividend withholding tax and therefore no additional entitlement is possible. Due to uncertainty of the Tax Law, Deutsche Bank will not make available this option to Spanish ADR Holders. Spanish ADR Holders must opt for the traditional cash dividend or Repsol’s stock. Proceeds elections should be made through CA Web via the Relief At Source process.

Cash beneficial owners may reclaim the difference between the statutory rate and the beneficial owner’s rate of entitlement by submitting the required documentation to Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas. There will be one “Quick Refund” filing deadline as stipulated below; all claims submitted after this date should be submitted through the Standard “Long Form” filing procedure.
