Important notice #11380-19, published on May 20, 2019, announced June 13, 2019 as the target date to begin supporting client testing of the new night cycle processing logic in the PSE test (U) region. To accommodate the need for additional internal testing scenarios, DTC is delaying the start of the client testing window. DTC will communicate the revised testing plan shortly via a subsequent important notice.

Questions regarding this important notice or the larger Settlement Optimization proposal should be directed to your Relationship Manager.
