PROFILE

Adrien Vanderlinden

Executive Director, Systemic Risk Office

Adrien Vanderlinden leads the Systemic Risk Office of The Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation (DTCC), which is tasked with identifying, addressing and mitigating the systemic threats to DTCC, its clients and the financial industry at large. He heads DTCC's interconnectedness risk program and is involved in several other initiatives that are designed to strengthen the resilience of DTCC's Systemically Important Financial Market Utilities. He is also responsible for developing white papers and other educational materials on systemic risk issues.

Prior to joining DTCC, Mr. Vanderlinden was a vice president for Euroclear, the world's largest International Central Securities Depository, where he was responsible for new product development. In this capacity, he worked closely with global fixed income market participants on tri-party repo services and collateral management solutions.

A Belgian native, Mr. Vanderlinden holds a master's degree in Economics from the University of Leuven (KU Leuven).

About DTCC

With more than 40 years of experience, DTCC is the premier post-trade market infrastructure for the global financial services industry. From operating facilities, data centers and offices in 16 countries, DTCC, through its subsidiaries, automates, centralizes and standardizes the processing of financial transactions, mitigating risk, increasing transparency and driving efficiency for thousands of broker/dealers, custodian banks and asset managers. Industry owned and governed, the firm simplifies the complexities of clearing, settlement, asset servicing, data management and information services across asset classes, bringing increased security and soundness to financial markets. In 2016, DTCC's subsidiaries processed securities transactions valued at more than U.S. $1.5 quadrillion. Its depository provides custody and asset servicing for securities issues from over 130 countries and territories valued at U.S. $49.2 trillion. DTCC's Global Trade Repository maintains approximately 40 million open OTC positions per week and processes over one billion messages per month.
