

Matt Johnson

Director, ITP Product Management and Industry Relations

Matt Johnson serves as a Director on the ITP Industry Relations and participates on the Strategic Initiatives team at DTCC. Within this role, Matt is responsible for collaborating with his product management peers to develop a robust and comprehensive strategy for the firm's Institutional Trade Processing (ITP) suite of services to ensure it meets evolving client and industry needs in Europe and beyond. He also serves as an EU expert on several local regulations, including CSDR. Matt has been with DTCC for coming up on ten years, with a focus on client relationship management, trade association relationships and industry & infrastructure engagement.

Prior to DTCC, Matt held several operational roles at several investment banks covering cross-product client services & relationship management across cash securities, FX and OTC clearing. Matt is a regular speaker on the conference circuit and has been quoted in many trade publications on European regulation, post-trade processing and the evolution of middle office operations.

DTCC is the premier post-trade market infrastructure for the global financial services industry. From 20 locations around the world, DTCC, through its subsidiaries, automates, centralizes, and standardizes the processing of financial transactions, mitigating risk, increasing transparency, enhancing performance and driving efficiency for thousands of broker/dealers, custodian banks and asset managers.
