

Oliver Williams

Executive Director and APAC Business Development
Lead, Repository and Derivatives Services

Ollie Williams is responsible for Business Development in Asia for the Repository and Derivatives Services business. In this capacity, Ollie works closely with the broader organization to develop and grow opportunities in the APAC region. Through his long experience in the regulatory reporting space, Ollie has developed a strong understanding of the regulatory frameworks behind reporting requirements, as well as the industry efforts to meet these requirements and the ever-evolving technology behind it all.

Prior to this role, Ollie served as Head of DTCC Data Repository, Singapore Pte. Ltd. (DDRS) and sat on the DDRS board in an Executive Director capacity. Before joining DTCC, Ollie spent 15 years in operational roles at major global investment banks, based in Sydney and London. These roles spanned traditional cash markets as well as listed and OTC Derivatives businesses, the latter leading to Ollie's exposure to, and interest in, trade reporting.

Ollie holds a Bachelor's Degree in Economics from the University of Sydney and lives in Australia.
