

Renee LaRoche-Morris

Managing Director, Chief Financial Officer

Renee LaRoche-Morris is Managing Director and Chief Financial Officer, leading DTCC's global finance, treasury, and initiative oversight teams including the New Initiatives Office, Enterprise Program Management Office and the Business Transformation Office. She also oversees strategic sourcing, real estate & workplace design, and global security management. She is a member of the DTCC Executive Committee, a member of the IT Governance Committee (ITGC), and co-chair of the company's Investment Management Committee.

Prior to joining DTCC, Renee held multiple senior-level roles at State Street, serving as Chief of Staff to the Chief Operating Officer, Chief Administrative Officer of Shared Services and, most recently, as Head of the Integration Management Office for State Street's acquisition of the Investor Services business of Brown Brothers Harriman.

Prior to that, Renee was a Managing Director at BNY Mellon, where she held the roles of Chief Operating Officer of Investment Management, Interim Chief Financial Officer of Investment Management and Chief Financial Officer of Wealth Management. Earlier in her career, Renee held strategy, operations and finance positions at Pershing and Deloitte Consulting.

Renee is a member of the Executive Leadership Council, Treasurer of the Board of Dress for Success Worldwide and was a member of the SEC Asset Management Advisory Committee. She holds FINRA Series 7 and 24 Licenses.

DTCC is the premier post-trade market infrastructure for the global financial services industry. From 20 locations around the world, DTCC, through its subsidiaries, automates, centralizes, and standardizes the processing of financial transactions, mitigating risk, increasing transparency, enhancing performance and driving efficiency for thousands of broker/dealers, custodian banks and asset managers. To learn more, visit www.dtcc.com.