3.1. Submission in the UAT environment will not constitute a Submission for purposes of the Fee Schedule.

3.2. Individual Submissions are assigned and billed in the following order of precedence:

- The starting position is that the Submission is assigned and billed as Agent Lender Fees to the Agent Lender where the Agent Lender is identified in the appropriate field in the Submission and has opted into paying its clients' fees for Submissions.
- If no Agent Lender is identified on the Submission or the Agent Lender has not agreed to pay its clients' fees, the Submission is assigned and billed as Reporting Fees to the Entity Responsible for Reporting if it is Directly Onboarded.
- If no Entity Responsible for Reporting is included in the Submission, or the entity listed as Entity Responsible for Reporting is not Directly Onboarded, or the Entity Responsible for Reporting is not available, the Submission is assigned and billed as Reporting Fees to the Reporting Counterparty.

- If the Reporting Counterparty included in the Submission is not Directly Onboarded and the Report Submitting Entity, itself the Other Counterparty to the transaction, is reporting on behalf of the Reporting Counterparty, the Submission is assigned and billed as Delegated Reporting fees to the Report Submitting Entity.
- If the Reporting Counterparty included in the Submission is not Directly Onboarded and the Report Submitting Entity is reporting on behalf of the Reporting Counterparty but is not itself the Other Counterparty, the Submission is assigned and billed as Report Submitting Entity Fees to the Report Submitting Entity.

3.3. The standard billing period is a calendar month. Invoices cover the full billing period or relevant part thereof if the Principal User or Third Party Service Provider joins or leaves the DDRL UK SFTR Reporting Service during a billing period.

1 or more	$0.00900

8. INTRODUCER SERVICE FEES

- 8.1. An Introducer is responsible for all Fees incurred by or on behalf of its End Users under this Fee Schedule.

Introducer Account Management Fee

- 8.2. An Introducer shall pay the following Account Management Fee in respect of each of their End Users which is billable for each month or part thereof and not refundable in the event of termination of the UK SFTR Reporting Service, End User Agreement or User Agreement during a month. The Introducer Account Management Fee is charged in addition to the User Account Management Fee the Introducer pays in accordance with paragraph 2 in its capacity as a Principal User.

8.3. The Introducer Account Management Fee is subject to the application of the fee cap described in paragraph 9.2 below.

Total number of End Users	Introducer Account Management Fee Amount
0 – 200	$220 per month
201 or more	$110 per month

8.4. For example, each month an Introducer with 250 End Users will pay USD220 for the first 200 End Users and USD110 for the next 50 End Users. This amounts to:

$$(\text{USD}220 \times 200) \text{ plus } (\text{USD}110 \times 50) = \text{USD}44,000 + \text{USD}5,500 = \text{USD}49,500$$

Reporting Fees

8.5. Reporting Fees for Submissions made by the Introducer on behalf of the End Users or by the End Users themselves are charged to the Introducer. These Reporting Fees are subject to the application of the fee caps described in paragraph 9 below.

Report Submitting Entity Fees

8.6. The Introducer does not pay any Report Submitting Entity Fees where someone other than the Introducer makes a Submission for an End Client. In these circumstances, the Report Submitting Entity pays the Report Submitting Entity Fees for the Submissions in question.

9.1. A separate annual cap of USD445,000 applies to each of the Reporting Fees, Delegated Reporting Fees and Agent Lender Fees for the period between 1 January to 31 December.
