

Connor Coleman

Director, Global Government Relations

Connor Coleman serves as Director, Global Government Relations at DTCC. In this role, Connor primarily focuses on policy issues that directly impact the financial markets, DTCC and its clients. Connor also serves as the liaison between DTCC and the Republican delegation of the U.S. Congress. In addition, Connor assists with development and execution of DTCC PAC activity.

Prior to joining DTCC, Connor worked at Abernathy MacGregor where he provided public and private organizations with public affairs and advocacy support as well as, political, legislative, and regulatory services. Connor also worked in Government Relations at the Bank Policy Institute, advancing legislative priorities on behalf of the nation's leading banks.

Connor earned his B.S. in Political Science and Sociology and his Masters in Public Policy Analysis from Jacksonville University.

DTCC is the premier post-trade market infrastructure for the global financial services industry. From 20 locations around the world, DTCC, through its subsidiaries, automates, centralizes, and standardizes the processing of financial transactions, mitigating risk, increasing transparency, enhancing performance and driving efficiency for thousands of broker/dealers, custodian banks and asset managers. To learn more, visit www.dtcc.com.