

Justin McCorvey

Director of Global Government Relations

Justin McCorvey serves as the Director of Global Government Relations at DTCC. In this role, Justin primarily focuses on policy issues that directly impact the financial markets, DTCC and its clients. Justin also serves as the liaison between DTCC and the Democratic delegation of the U.S. Congress. Additionally, he serves as Director of DTCC's PAC.

Prior to joining DTCC, Justin served as a manager at a strategy and communications firm with a special emphasis on crisis management, policy, and diversity, equity and inclusion.

Justin's multifaceted experience within corporate America, law, and politics has enabled him to hold a number of positions including roles with Fortune 50 companies and efforts to elect prominent political figures at all levels of the U.S. Government.

Justin, a Birmingham, AL native, is a proud graduate of Florida A&M University where he received his Bachelor's degree in political science. He also holds a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Iowa College of Law.

DTCC is the premier post-trade market infrastructure for the global financial services industry. From 20 locations around the world, DTCC, through its subsidiaries, automates, centralizes, and standardizes the processing of financial transactions, mitigating risk, increasing transparency, enhancing performance and driving efficiency for thousands of broker/dealers, custodian banks and asset managers.
