BNY MELLON

LUKOIL has announced a dividend. BNY MELLON acts as Depository for the company's Depository Receipt ("DR") program.

Participants can use DTC's Elective Dividend System (EDS) function over the Participant Terminal System (PTS) or TaxRelief option on the Participant Browser System (PBS) web site to certify all or a portion of their position entitled to the applicable rate as per Double Tax Treaty and Statutory Rate. Use of EDS will permit entitlement amounts to be paid through DTC. By electing, Participants agree to the Agreements Representations and Indemnification below.

On DR Pay Date, holders that disclose summary beneficial owner information may be eligible to receive the applicable rate as per a relevant Double Tax Treaty or the 15% statutory withholding rate. All non-disclosed holders will receive this dividend net of a maximum 30% withholding rate.

Effective January 1, 2014 there are new requirements to obtain reduced withholding tax treatment on Russian DRs. The new requirements are untested and not guaranteed, even with disclosure, and apply to any Russian DR with a record date after January 1, 2014.

In order to obtain a more preferential rate than the 30% maximum withholding tax rate, beneficial holder residency disclosure is now required on DRs held as of record date. This disclosure includes:

- country of tax residence and entity type for a Double Tax Treaty Rate claim, which will require a Certificate of Residency (COR) for the CALENDAR year of the dividend payment in the event of an audit OR
- country of tax residence and entity type for the Statutory Rate (15% withholding).

If disclosure is not made, tax will be withheld at the maximum 30% tax rate.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THERE IS THE POTENTIAL FOR AUDIT ON YOUR DISCLOSED DRs

Current regulations provide that the Russian authorities may audit the electing participants and their beneficial owner clients who elect a lower withholding rate than the 30% rate for up to three CALENDAR years after the dividend payment.

For those who elect for Double Tax Treaty Rate benefits, at a minimum, audits are expected to require an original of the COR for tax residency with specific language in regards to the double taxation treaty between the country of residence and the Russian Federation. These forms, and translations into Russian if in a foreign language, will each need to be Apostilled, Legalized or notarized (as applicable). For those who elect the Statutory Rate, it is expected that at a minimum audits will require disclosure of details related to underlying beneficial owner residency, and other undetermined elements, to determine that the investor is accurately represented in the aggregate elections. The Ministry of Finance has indicated, via Letter No. 03-08-R3/27274 to the Federal Tax Administration of Russia on June 5, 2014¹, that the certificate of residency (COR) is required for preparation of the withholding tax election based on a Double Tax Treaty Rate.

There is expected to be a three (3) months period to provide audit documentation to the authorities with the possibility of a three (3) month's extension. Please note the Russian authorities maintain the right to request additional information and/or forms at any time and from time to time. It should also be noted that the Tax Code does not provide for any guidance with regards to the documents which can be regarded as a proper identification document. Participants and beneficial owners will be responsible and liable for any tax relief and for maintenance and provision of all supporting materials at all times, including in the event of an audit.

Please note, this notice should not be construed nor represents BNY Mellon providing any legal, tax, accounting or other professional advice on these matters. You should seek advice from an independent tax advisor.
