In keeping with industry best practices towards risk reduction, on the evening of February 28th, 2016, the test (PSE) version of DTC's SMART/Track for Buy-ins web application will be migrated to a new 'test-dedicated' URL, in order to provide enhanced data integrity to our clients. Please note that access to the production application will remain unchanged.

User Impact

Beginning February 28th, 2016, users accessing the SMART/Track for Buy-ins PSE application from the production URL <https://portal.dtcc.com> will be redirected as follows:

- A new window will be prompt users to enter User ID and Password (users will continue to be able to use their current credentials)
- Once credentials are entered, users will be directed to the new PSE application portal on <https://portalu.dtcc.com> . While the production links to the new PSE URL will remain active for some time, users should book mark this new URL immediately to access the PSE version of SMART/Track for Buy-ins going forward. This means that users may now have two bookmarks for the application.
