Japanese issuers have announced a cash dividend and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas acts as one of the Depositories for the Depositary Receipt (“DR”) program.

Participants may use DTC’s Corporate Actions Web (“CA Web”) instructions tab to certify all or a portion of their position entitled to each applicable withholding tax rate. Use of this instruction method will permit entitlement amounts to be paid through DTC. By making submissions of such certifications the submitter warrants that it has the required authority to make them, that the party for which the submission is made is eligible therefor, and will indemnify, as applicable, Globe Tax Services, Inc., the applicable depository, the applicable custodian, and other acting, directly or indirectly, in reliance thereon, including for any inaccuracy therein.

As outlined in the Eligibility Matrix below, all qualifying holders will have the opportunity to receive their full treaty benefits on DR pay date. Holders not certified at the favorable or exempt withholding tax rates through CA Web will receive the dividend net of the full Japanese statutory withholding tax rate of 15.315% with the possibility to reclaim through the standard long form process.

Japanese dividends with August 2020 Record Dates are outlined in the Dividend Event Matrix below.

NOTE: The DTC Participant should rely on either assurance from their clients or their own records to ensure that Forms Appendix A, I.R.S. W-9 or W-8 can be presented if the Japanese Tax Office requests them.

Please note that the Japanese Tax Office has the legal authority to audit claims filed for a period of seven years so it is the DTC Participant’s responsibility to ensure that your document retention policies for US withholding tax documentation are adequate to support potential audits from the Japanese Tax Office.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs)

AT SOURCE QUESTIONS

What information does the beneficiary need to disclose in order to receive favorable tax treatment?	Name, address, country of residence, and share position. A tax ID number is only required for U.S. residents.
Do shareholders requesting 15.315% withholding need to disclose information?	No, disclosure does not apply. Please refer to relief at-source eligibility matrix for documentation requirements.
Will holders wishing to benefit from favorable tax treatment need to furnish supporting documentation up front?	No, brokers must store W-9 and W-8BEN on file in case of an audit.
Does the Japanese law require a certification of residence (Form 6166) to participate in the reclaim process?	No. The law governing the processing of DRS does not require the presence or collection of a certification of residency (Form 6166) though participants may be required to prove the eligibility of the underlying investors. Upon review of the W-9 and W-8BEN forms the Japanese tax office agreed to accept these as proof of eligibility.
Will a certificate of residence (Form 6166) be requested during an audit?	The Japanese ministry of finance reserves the right to request any other documentation it may need to determine the eligibility of the investor. We have been advised that the Japanese tax office may request a certificate of residency in rare circumstances where the information provided is inconsistent and cannot be confirmed through the provision of other documents or explanations.
Who is considered a “large shareholder”?	Individual (non-corporate) investors who hold 3% or more of the number of outstanding shares for dividend income from listed shares, now fall under the "large shareholder" category. These "large shareholders" will no longer be eligible for the preferential tax rates and thus be applied the 20.42% tax rate for dividends paid after September 30, 2011. Participants are required to disclose the name and address of these "large shareholders" to the depository by the deadline stated within this notice. Corporate entities (both Japanese and non-Japanese) who hold 3% or more of the number of outstanding shares for dividend income from listed shares are still entitled to the preferential withholding rates and are eligible to receive the income with a 15.315% withholding rate applied or more if eligible based on the treaty between the investors country of residence and Japan. Dividend income for unlisted shares will continue to be withheld at the 20.42% Japanese national tax rate.
Which select United Arab Emirates resident entities are eligible to receive a favorable rate?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Central Bank of the UAE ▪ Abu Dhabi Investment Authority ▪ Abu Dhabi Investment Council ▪ International Petroleum Investment Company ▪ Investment Corporation of Dubai ▪ Mubadala Development Company ▪ Eligible pension funds established in the UAE

LONG FORM QUESTIONS

Can I submit a trust agreement in lieu of a POA signed by the beneficial owner?	Yes, but a limited POA signed by the participant must be accompanied by the trust agreement.
Are Form 6166s with IRS code ruling 81-100 accepted?	Yes, with a tax determination letter & pension declaration letter.
Does the beneficiary's name on the Form 6166 need to match the POA?	Yes, the beneficiary's name on both documents should be identical.
Does the long form process have a minimum position requirement per beneficial owner?	Yes, please call for more details.
What is the statute of limitations for filing Japanese reclaims?	It is 5 years from ordinary pay date. Claims received after our submission deadline will be filed in good faith.
What if the beneficial owner name and/or address is not consistent with the other documents?	Please send a letter on participant letterhead explaining the discrepancy and be sure to include the tax ID number.
How often are long form claims filed with the Japanese custodians?	Due to quarterly filing limitations GlobeTax files on February 20th, May 20th, August 20th & November 20th of each year.
Will the depository accept claims filed directly to them by beneficial owners?	The depository only accepts claims filed by the DTC participant who was holding securities through DTC and only to the extent that DTC has reported these holdings to us as valid record date holdings. Beneficial owners are required to file their claims through the custody chain to the DTC participant of record. All claims not received directly from the DTC participant will be returned to the beneficial owner.
Do pension plans need to disclose any underlying holder information for the long form process?	Yes, effective September 1, 2012 pension plans will need to disclose the total number of participants, the number of treaty eligible participants and the date of fiscal year end.
Is this long form process free of charge?	No. This tax reclaim assistance service is wholly voluntary and discretionary and outside the terms and conditions of any applicable deposit agreement. Fees will be charged for this assistance service of up to $0.0125 per depository receipt for standard long form reclaims with a minimum of $25.00. Reclaims received post deadline cannot be assured and may be subject to a per beneficiary fee as well as other charges, fees or expenses payable by or due to BNY Mellon, Citibank N.A., Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or its agents, including the custodian or tax authorities. In addition, charges may apply to any long form claims rejected or not accepted by the custodian. Fees paid to BNY Mellon, Citibank N.A., Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. may be shared with its agents.
