REQUIREMENTS TO QUALIFY FOR U.S. TREATY BENEFITS

INVESTOR	DESCRIPTION / CLARIFICATION
U.S. INDIVIDUAL	U.S. citizens or “green card” holders are only considered resident in the United States if they have a substantial presence, permanent home, or habitual abode in the United States. Additionally, individual retirement accounts (IRAs) without a Form 6166 and simplified employee pension plans (SEPs) should be included within this option.
U.S. CORPORATION	This is a corporation (other than a RIC or an S-Corporation) created or organized under the laws of the United States. To be considered eligible, the corporation must qualify under at least one of several “tests” recognized under Article 22 Limitation of Benefits of the 1998 U.S. – Switzerland Tax Convention. Among the most common tests is the: a) Activity test: the corporation must conduct an active trade or business in the United States. b) Predominant interest test: more than 50% of the owners of the company must be United States residents. c) Stock exchange test: the corporation or the ultimate beneficial owner of a predominant interest in the corporation is primarily and regularly traded on a recognized stock exchange.
CHARITIES AND FOUNDATIONS	This is an “Other Entity” such as a charitable entity, endowment, foundation, state or religious organization created under the laws of the United States (U.S. tax exempt organizations).
U.S. PARTNERSHIPS, S-CORPS, TRUSTS, LLCs, LLPs AND ESTATES	U.S. partnerships, S-Corps, estates, LLCs, LLPs, and trusts, created or organized under the laws of the United States, are eligible to the extent that the dividend income is subject to tax, either in the hands of the entities or in the hands of their partners or beneficiaries that are U.S. residents. Therefore, these transparent entities are only entitled to receive the favorable tax treatment on the percentage of ADRs which are owned by U.S. residents. *All transparent entities must disclose ultimate beneficial owner (i.e. the recipient of the income) information, including underlying holder name, address, tax ID, shares, and percentage of ownership. Failure to do so can result in the rejection of the claim by the Swiss Tax Administration or in extensive audits. If the ultimate beneficial owner (recipient of the income) is the transparent entity itself (such as with retained income trusts or complex trusts), the name of the entity may be repeated for the underlying holder name.
REGULATED INVESTMENT COMPANIES	A RIC is considered eligible when it is created or organized under the laws of the United States, and more than ninety-five percent (95%) of the beneficial owners of the RIC are residents of the United States. RICs which meet this requirement will receive favorable tax treatment on one hundred percent (100%) of their record date position. Note: RICs which are made up of less than ninety-five percent (95%) of United States residents are only entitled to receive the favorable tax treatment on the percentage of shares which are owned by U.S. residents. *RICs with more than 50% indirect shareholders must provide a letter of explanation as stated under letter e) on the 82R form. The letter of explanation must explain the basis for treating indirect shareholders as U.S. residents. Sufficient letters of explanation include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) a full breakdown of the RIC’s underlying holders, including name, full address, and number of fund units; 2) summary data listing the shares and percentages of RIC shareholders per country of residence; 3) RIC prospectus stating that shares are not sold outside of the U.S.; 4) data on taxation of fund distributions showing distinction between domestic investors vs. non-resident investors
U.S. EXEMPT PENSION	A pension plan or retirement arrangement is eligible if it is exempt in the United States and more than half of the beneficial owners are residents of the United States. Eligible U.S. pension plans or other retirement arrangements generally include U.S. resident tax exempt trusts providing pension or retirement benefits under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) section 401(a) for qualified pension plans, profit sharing plans (including 401(k) arrangements), and stock bonus plans. Additionally, non-qualified plans defined under IRC sections 457 (b) – deferred compensation plans of state and local governments and tax-exempt organizations and 403 (b) – tax-sheltered annuities purchased by certain tax-exempt organizations or public schools may also generally qualify for exemption.
U.S. EXEMPT IRA	An Individual Retirement Account (IRA) must be opened with an institution that has received Internal Revenue Service (IRS) approval to offer these accounts.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs)

GENERAL QUESTIONS

What information does the beneficiary need to disclose in order to receive favorable tax treatment?	Name, address, country of residence, tax ID number, and share position are required.
Is the beneficial owner required to submit a certificate of residence (Form 6166) to participate in the reclaim process?	Yes, if they are a pension or IRA, or if they are a corporation, charity, RIC, or transparent entity holding above a certain threshold (ADR share equivalent of a gross dividend of CHF 100,000 or more). See the Eligibility Matrix for more details.
Can non-U.S. holders be filed through the Relief at Source process?	No, all non-U.S. holders must be filed through the Long Form process. Non-U.S. holders must submit documentation that includes tax forms stamped by the tax authority of the beneficiary's country of residence, a certificate of dividend payment and cover letter. For more details, please contact GlobeTax.
What is the statute of limitations for filing Swiss reclaims?	It is at the end of the year, 3 years from the record date. Claims received after our submission deadline will be filed in good faith. Please see The U.S. Long Form Procedure matrix for more details on when the submission deadlines are.
What if a pension or IRA is looking to reclaim the full 35% refund, but cannot furnish an IRS Form 6166 during the Relief at Source process?	If the pension is holding an ADR share amount less than the threshold, they may file during the Relief at Source process for a 20% reclaim first. They may then file a secondary claim with a valid 6166, through the Long Form process, to recoup the remaining 15% refund. In order to acquire exemption, a 6166 must be provided, stating the pension's law of establishment as 401(a), 457(g), 403(b), 457(b) or 81-100. The 81-100 Attestation is required for 81-100 group trusts. Similarly, an IRA can first file as an Individual during the Relief at Source process for a 20% reclaim, then file a secondary Long Form claim to recoup the remaining 15% refund. In order to acquire full exemption, a 6166 in the name of the beneficiary is required.
