Note: There are some countries with double taxation treaties with the Russian Federation that have multiple withholding rates. The higher reclaim rates generally apply to conditional situations (i.e. holding a minimum amount of outstanding shares or a special entity type). Beneficial owners who receive tax relief via the Relief At Source or Quick Refund process are ineligible to apply for a lower rate from the Russian Tax Authorities at a later date. FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs)

Do I need to provide a certificate of residency (“COR”)?	For relief at source and quick refund processes, the ESP generated forms will be required at the time of election. However, CORs will be required in the event of an audit for those disclosing for treaty benefits and you will be liable to maintain and provide these in that event. It is expected that CORs must be translated into Russian and apostilled, legalized and/or notarized and that they must be issued as of the calendar year.
Is it required to use ESP to disclose?	If you are not able to utilize the ESP system please contact GlobeTax to obtain copies of the ESP forms to submit manually.
What happens if I cannot complete my disclosure by the relief at source deadline?	There is an opportunity for quick refund submission immediately following the DR pay date.
Is there a difference between the relief at source and quick refund?	The process steps are the same for both processes. However, the relief at source period is shorter and involves payment of your dividend with tax relief on pay date. The quick refund is a longer period for submission and will involve payment of your tax relief after pay date. Both payments are electronic.
Is there opportunity for standard refund?	At this time there is no defined standard refund. Please contact GlobeTax for additional information.
Is it possible for me to disclose ownership of the DRs for 15% withholding even if the country of tax residence has a DTT?	Yes. You may indicate the shares by country of residence to disclose ownership residency but not obtain treaty benefits.
Is it possible to disclose shares for an exempt rate, a rate of 0% withholding?	A participant may submit for a qualifying exempt entity but Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas/GlobeTax Services cannot guarantee the payment of said exemption. For additional information, potential reclaim, and submission requirements please contact GlobeTax.
Can residents of a DTT country with an entity type considered transparent disclose their DRs to receive the dividend at the double tax treaty rate?	The DRs of transparent entities should be disclosed at the underlying beneficial holder level. Always check the specifics of the relevant tax treaty to ensure you are properly disclosing the DRs of the entity and country of tax residence with respect to the Russian Federation.
Will Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas/GlobeTax accept claims filed directly to them by beneficial owners?	Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas/GlobeTax will only accept claims filed by the DTC Participant who held the securities through DTC and only to the extent that the DTC has reported these holdings to us as valid.
