Telecom Italia S.p.A. ANNOUNCES QUICK REFUND TAX RELIEF PROCEDURES - NOW THROUGH DTC'S EDS

Important Notice

JPMorgan Chase, on behalf of Telecom Italia S.p.A., (NYSE: TI), CUSIP 87927Y102, has announced a plan to assist its ADR holders in reducing their tax liability in Italy. Beneficiaries from countries who have double taxation treaties entered into force with Italy are generally liable to a withholding tax rate on dividends that is less than the statutory withholding tax rate of 27%. Participants can now use DTC's Elective Dividend Service (EDS) function under Foreign Securities via the Participant Terminal System (PTS) to certify all or a portion of their position for cash at the favorable or unfavorable Italian withholding tax rates. Payments on the withholding tax relief will be made subsequent to the ADR paydate.

Qualifying beneficiaries may claim Treaty benefits via the quick refund procedure through EDS and by submitting to JPMorgan Chase ("JPMorgan") the required documents by the dates indicated. The use of EDS is not a substitute for the documentation you must provide, all documentation in support of your election should still be submitted to JPMorgan by the dates indicated or JPMorgan (through DTC) will manually correct your elections to match the paperwork received. These steps will enable the Italian Depository bank ("custodian") and JPMorgan as ADR Depository to recover the difference between the statutory withholding tax rate of 27% and the exempt rate of 0% withholding tax (for Kuwaiti beneficiaries), or the reduced withholding tax rates of 10%, 15%, 20%, or 25% from the Italian Tax Authorities provided all documentation is accepted.

A further reduced withholding tax rate of 1.375% can be applied in the very specific cases of dividends paid to corporate entities with residence in a European Union Member State or European Economic Area (EEA) country included in the "Italian White List". The entity must be subject to corporate income tax in their country of residence. A complete list of eligible nations can be found in Appendix A.

The procedure will be managed as follows: (a) on ADR payment date, scheduled for April 30, 2009, JPMorgan will pay the dividend less the entire amount of withholding tax under Italian law (currently 27%) to all DTC Participants, representing payment of Telecom Italia S.p.A.'s gross dividend of (0.05 Euro per Ordinary Share, or 0.50 Euro per ADR). (b) the EDS election window will open the day after ADR payment date and will close the day of the initial deadline. (c) after this deadline, JPMorgan will ensure that the EDS elections made by the participants match the paperwork that was received and process any necessary changes or reversals on the participant's accounts through DTC. (d) JPMorgan will then process and forward to the custodian all applications requesting the reduced withholding tax rates. (e) JPMorgan will process the funds at the prevailing exchange rate on the day the refund is made. (f) Payment for the initial batch will be made through DTC at the various rates of entitlement. (g) Payment for subsequent batches will be made by check.

Beneficial owners who hold their ADRs in street name (through a bank or broker) or within the Depository Trust Company ("DTC") and wish to avail themselves of the benefits afforded by the Treaty must submit documentation with respect to each dividend payment through their nominees or DTC participants. The nominees or DTC participants will then forward the documents to JPMorgan at the address noted below together with a cover letter (Exhibit 1).

Required documents to be submitted for each beneficial holder are as follows:
