

Lynn Bishop

Managing Director and Chief Information Officer, DTCC

Lynn Bishop is Managing Director and Chief Information Officer (CIO) at The Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation (DTCC). As CIO, she is responsible for the ongoing development and testing of all the technology that supports DTCC's post-trade infrastructure, communications networks, processing and messaging systems, as well as the IT applications underlying DTCC's broad range of products and services. She is also a member of the firm's Management Committee.

As a leader in DTCC's technology team for over a decade, Lynn previously served as DTCC's Chief Development Officer (CDO) and, before that, was Chief Technology Officer (CTO). She started her career at Accenture during which time she gained extensive experience delivering systems integration, architecture, project management, and business and information technology solutions for several large global financial institutions.

A champion for diversity and inclusion, she dedicates her time and shares her experiences to support the advancement of women in STEM careers. She serves as DTCC's senior sponsor of Girls Who Code, a national non-profit organization working to close the gender gap in technology, and actively supports DTCC's D&I efforts, including programs and initiatives that are helping to develop emerging talent and women in technology.

Lynn graduated from Bucknell University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration.

About DTCC

With over 45 years of experience, DTCC is the premier post-trade market infrastructure for the global financial services industry. From 21 locations around the world, DTCC, through its subsidiaries, automates, centralizes and standardizes the processing of financial transactions, mitigating risk, increasing transparency and driving efficiency for thousands of broker/dealers, custodian banks and asset managers. Industry owned and governed, the firm simplifies the complexities of clearing, settlement, asset servicing, data management, data reporting and information services across asset classes, bringing increased security and soundness to financial markets. In 2021, DTCC's subsidiaries processed securities transactions valued at nearly U.S. $2.4 quadrillion. Its depository provides custody and asset servicing for securities issues from 177 countries and territories valued at U.S. $87.1 trillion. DTCC's Global Trade Repository service, through locally registered, licensed, or approved trade repositories, processes 16 billion messages annually.
